The remand order mailed on April 12, 2006, required the IDS of November 25, 2003 to be reviewed and a complete copy of reference RD 354039 A be entered into the application. With regards to the IDS filed on November 25, an initialed and signed copy is attached herewith indicating that the references have been considered. One of the Japanese references was a duplicate reference listed on the first IDS submission and JP 10-257587 is a Japanese patent based on application JP 09-072652, which was previously considered. Additionally, a complete copy of reference RD 354039 A was included with the Examiner's Answer filed December 19, 2005, and has already been mailed to the applicant and scanned into the file as an NPL document. Thus, the issues of the remand order have been addressed and the case should be returned to the Board of Appeals for review.
